

Residence Life Vision Statement

Residence Life seeks to provide a home where students grow and thrive in connection with God and others. We want our residence halls to be an environment of growth and learning. Here are some of the things we hope students will take away from living on campus at Bethel:

- Meaningful relationships with others
- Increased understanding of self
- Practical life skills

Policy Contact:

- Associate Dean for Residence Life
 - Jim Benjamin
 - j-benjamin@bethel.edu