

Violent Acts or Threats

The university will not tolerate acts or threats of violence against members of this community or retaliation against any individual reporting a threat or act of violence. This prohibition includes verbal, non-verbal, or written actions and all forms of intimidation. Student Life staff and Safety and Security personnel may require students involved in prohibited conduct to leave campus immediately pending the investigation of the incident. Violations of this policy, regardless of intent, may result in suspension or other disciplinary action, up to and including expulsion from the university.

All Threats of violence should be reported to the Campus Violence Prevention Team. Reports can be made by calling 651-638-6400 or e-mailing threat-assessment@bethel.edu
