ITS Knowledge Base Home

Welcome to the Bethel University ITS Support Site. To get started, use the search bar in the upper right or click on an icon below.
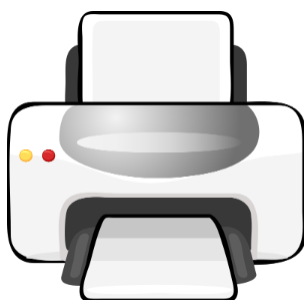

If you can't find what you need here or need extra support, submit a request on sevice.bethel.edu give us a call at (651) 638-6500, email us, or come see us in RC 419 (map).

Browse this site

The Shortcomings of Multi-Factor Authentication
Unknown User (lucand) posted on Sep 13, 2022
Multi-factor authentication (MFA) is a security tool used to help protect access to your various online accounts. This year, Bethel began requiring MFA be used when connecting to resources from off-campus for our employees. With time, use of MFA will become the norm on most applications for

Help Desk Location and Hours

Location: RC 419 (Robertson Center)

3900 Bethel Dr. Arden Hills, MN 55038

Summer Hours:

Sunday: Closed

Monday - Friday: 8am - 5pm

Saturday: Closed

most users, however it is not a fool-proof security solution. Attackers have devised ways around this protection and you should know how they are doing that. First of all,…